SMITH, ELLISON & CO.

—The candidacy of Hon. J. W.
Cowgill for State Senator is well and favorably received and commended. He is a man of great ability, who will be a credit to the state.

The candidates for the nomination will be between Mr. Cowgill and Mr. George, and will be lively and interesting. We fully understand that our voters will not submit to the primaries, and indeed it seems still to be in doubt as to his candidacy at all.

SPRING MILLINERY.

—All nature is rejoicing in the return of Spring, the arts of man are also rejoicing in the good news that Spring has come to town; and in such beautiful variety and quality as we have never seen before.

There are many new and striking designs introduced for the first time this year. Flowers, which are still retaining their supremacy as the leading garment on hats; and new style with art in this particular, and when we see them, we are surely won't be disappointed.
